

SMART BADGE

Bluetooth® Smart Badge for Corporate Users

Free your hands, free your mind, forget about charging for weeks – the revolutionary Iqua Smart Badge gives you up to 40 hours of handsfree talk time. It is a compact and stylish device combining corporate identification card holder and wireless call management.

With added security at most companies, most employees need an ID card at work, and almost everyone carries a cellular phone. With Iqua Smart Badge you can do all this using a single device. It is also your ultimate mobile accessory for VOIP calls. You can use it as a wireless speaker and microphone for your computer via the Bluetooth Headset profile, and apply it to VOIP internet calls or online messengers such as MSN Messenger, NetMeeting, Skype, Apple iChat AV.
